It started this monday, 28 November, the Eurobotics Week - the biggest robotics display in Europe, with activities ranging from demostrations, workshops, guided tours and others, through Portugal and the whole Europe.

Talking to "Ciência Hoje", Jorge Dias, national coordinator for the Portugal activities, explains that the main goal is to promote the tecnological domain of robotics, it's diferent interdisciplinary aspects and show to the current society it's importance to the future.

You can read the full article here.

Eurobotics Week had it's own presence in several online publications. You can read bellow the full articles regarding this huge robotics event taking place through Europe.

- AICEP Portugal Global
- CiênciaPT.net
- Exame Informática
- Fibra
- Diário As Beiras
- PT Jornal
- Cantinho da Programação
- Canal Superior
- Correio do Minho
- Diário As Beiras